

President Obama believes in the capacity of young people to move America forward. He is committed to providing young leaders from across the nation an opportunity to develop their leadership skills and fostering a continued commitment to public service through the White House Internship Program. This hands-on program is designed to mentor and cultivate today's young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office of the President and prepare them for future roles in public service. To learn more about the program, please visit whitehouse.gov/internships.

This program will mentor and cultivate young leaders of today and tomorrow and I'm proud that they will have this opportunity to serve...I want to commend all who apply for their desire to help through public service to forge a brighter future for our country."

—President Barack Obama, May 22, 2009
